

Quebec's FIMAV Reveals Initial 2020 Lineup with Colin Stetson, Lee Ranaldo, Bill Frisell

Jim Jarmusch, John Zorn, Mopcut, Eve Egoyan, Kathleen Yearwood and more will also perform

By Calum Slingerman

February 6, 2020

Quebec's Festival International de Musique Actuelle de Victoriaville is returning to action for its 36th year, and organizers have shared the lineup for their 2020 edition.

Taking place from May 14 to 17 in Victoriaville, QC, FIMAV will feature nearly 100 artists from 15 countries, including Ukraine, Hungary, Japan, Italy, Austria, England, Spain and Sweden.

Acts set to play the 2020 edition include Colin Stetson, Bill Frisell, improv outfit Lee Ranaldo / Jim Jarmusch / Marc Urselli / Balázs Pándi, John Zorn, Mopcut, Kathleen Yearwood, Eve Egoyan, Dither, Christine Duncan, Ensemble Ire, Fátima Miranda, Dakh Daughters, Pikacyu and more.

A pre-sale for festival passes is currently underway, giving the holders access to all concerts and experimental short film programs. Until February 27, passes can presently be had for $277, a savings of $100 off the regular price.

The complete lineup of acts can be found through FIMAV's website. A full festival schedule will land in March, alongside festival passes and individual show tickets.