FIMAV @ 38 – Surprise reveal of two concerts

Thursday, March 3, 2022 – The team at the Festival International de Musique Actuelle de Victoriaville (FIMAV) is revealing two concerts that will be part of the 38th FIMAV 2022 edition as a surprise for their audience. All other concerts will be announced on March 9 as scheduled.

DAKH DAUGHTERS (Ukraine)

With time, FIMAV developed a special talent for finding provocative artists who cross over geographical and musical barriers, yet whose music remains accessible to all. DAKH DAUGHTERS, an all-female group from Ukraine, present a colourful show where several genres are combined: traditional Ukrainian music, jazz and “Belle Époque” French chanson meet in an approach that can only be described as Musique Actuelle. FIMAV first invited this group of singers-musicians-performers for the 36th edition in 2020, which was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Since then, the FIMAV team hasn’t given up, and they finally intend to welcome them to Victoriaville for the 38th FIMAV 2022!

COLIN STETSON / MATS GUSTAFSSON (United States, Sweden)

COLIN STETSON (United States) and MATS GUSTAFSSON (Sweden) were invited to perform in Victoriaville as part of the 36th FIMAV 2020, but as with DAKH DAUGHTERS, it was ultimately a missed opportunity. In the spring of 2022, the 38th FIMAV audience will finally have the chance to attend the first concert on Quebec soil of these two giants of the saxophone, who will be sharing the stage to combine their diametrically opposed—but oh so complementary—approaches!

All other concerts to be presented at 38th FIMAV 2022 will be announced next Wednesday, March 9. That same day the Festival Passport will go on presale. This passport grants access to all concerts and to the short film programs. The detailed schedule and individual tickets will be made available later in March.
